Day one - Subject and object in a sentence.

In a sentence, the object is having something done to it.

This is usually a noun, pronoun or noun phrase telling us what the verb is acting on.

For example:

He sang to her.

They all love skiing.

Katherine looked at all the people.

In a sentence the subject is a person, animal or thing doing or being the verb.

This is also usually a noun, pronoun or noun phrase.

For example:

He sang to her.

They all love skiing.

Katherine looked at all the people.

Task one - Identify the subject and object in each of these sentences:

1. The brave man entered the cave.
2. The girl picked the flower.
3. The excited boys danced all night to the brilliant song.
4. The old lady broke the door down violently.
5. First, they all got in the car and sat down.
6. Jim, looking up nervously, slowly climbed the steep hill.
7. The teacher stopped the class with a shout.
8. Lola spent the whole afternoon practising ballet.

Task two - Write your own sentences identifying the subject and object.
