

True or False Statements

Dear Diary (Saturday 12th January),

I'm so happy!!!! We picked Max up today and he's the cutest puppy in the whole wide world. He's only 10 weeks old and he's so small. Yesterday, we bought him a lovely new bed and two new bowls. One's for his water and one's for food. We got him a sparkly new collar and lead too but we can't take him for a walk just yet.

He's been a really good boy so far. He loves having lots of cuddles and attention. I've also been training him today. If he comes to me when I say his name, I give him a reward. Tomorrow, I'm going to teach him to sit. Wish me luck!

- Using information from the text, put a tick in the correct box to show whether each statement is true or false.

	True	False
Max was picked up on Sunday.
He is only 10 days old.
He can't go for walks yet.
Max gets a reward if he does something right.
Max still needs to be taught how to sit.

Dear Diary (Sunday 13th January),

Wow! What a night! I got no sleep at all. Max really didn't want to stay in the kitchen last night. He kept barking and whining. I think he was a bit scared and lonely. I asked mum if he could sleep on my bed but she said no because it will teach him bad habits. She said that he'll soon get used to sleeping in his own bed. I do hope so as I can't do with another night like last night!

He's also chewed up some of my favourite toys. I was cross at first but I soon forgave him. Mum says that I need to tidy them away and I'm to make sure that the house is a safe place for Max. I'd be devastated if he hurt himself.

- Using information from the text, put a tick in the correct box to show whether each statement is true or false.

	True	False
They all had a great nights sleep.
Max was happy about sleeping in the kitchen.
Mum doesn't want Max to pick up bad habits.
Max was forgiven for chewing toys.
Max might hurt himself if toys are left lying around.		