Learning Objective To create a dialogue between two characters.
Success Criteria	Self-Assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To put inverted commas “ ” around what words the speaker says.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To start every speech sentence with a capital letter.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Each speaker starts on a new line.

Work through the PowerPoint and watch the clip below to remind yourself how to use inverted commas correctly.

Using your character, that you created last week, I would like you to write a dialogue (a conversation) between this character and one more. Imagine your characters are meeting each other for the very first time - what will they say to each other? What will they want to find out about one another?

Remember to:

Put “ ” around what words the speaker says.

A new speech sentence starts with a capital letter (even if it is the middle of another sentence).

Separate what was said from the speaker with a comma unless there is already a ? or an !

Start a new line if a sentence has a new speaker saying something.

Avoid using said in every speech sentence. Try some of the words below instead.

RIP

'said' is dead

complained	exclaimed	called
screamed	squealed	laughed
spoke	observed	answered
hollered	asked	thought
howled	yelled	expressed
cried	told	instructed
wailed	sighed
peeped	grinned
shouted	squawked
whispered	replied
