

Learning Objective:

To use capital letters and full stops correctly.

Success Criteria	Self -Assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To find capital letters in a text.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To use a capital letter at the start of a sentence.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To use finger spaces correctly.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To use a capital letter for the name of a person.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To use a full stop at the end of a sentence.

Find the capital letters and circle each one with a coloured pencil.
Find the full stops and circle them in a different colour.

Sammy got up and began to move away. As he went, more people ran past him, this time carrying large hooks. He turned to watch them. As they reached some of the buildings not yet on fire, the people began to use the hooks to pull them down. As Sammy stood there, the wind whipped around him. He watched as the wind caught the flames and carried them to more buildings. The fire continued to spread throughout the night.

Proper nouns need capital letters. Find the name which needs a capital letter and write it below.

What is wrong with these sentences from the story?
Write them out correctly.

1. lay to rest Sammy down.

2. burnt wood was There everywhere.

3. was the that woke Sammy It loud bang.

Find the missing capital letters and full stops in this extract from the story. Write them in in coloured pencil.

sammy ran away from st paul's cathedral he turned back to see that the flames had reached the edge of the roof he continued to travel the streets of london that day waiting for the fires to end

Write these sentences in your books correctly.

1. sammy began to bark loudly and scratched at the doors wildly
2. then sammy noticed the smell of smoke
3. sammy ran away from st paul's cathedral
4. sammy got up and began to move away