

Wednesday 20th January 2021

Learning Objective

To correctly spell and use words with the suffix -ship.

Success Criteria

- To know the spelling rules when adding the suffix -ship.
- To know create a bank of words with the suffix -ship.
- To put words with the suffix -ship into sentences.

Creating Nouns Using -ship Suffix

This week, we are going to look at adding the suffix -ship to root words to create nouns.

Let's start by seeing how many nouns you can think of that end in the suffix -ship...

For example:
member + ship = membership

You have five minutes to think of as many
-ship suffix words as you can.

How many words can you think of?

e.g. membership
ownership
partnership
dictatorship
championship
craftsmanship
fellowship
apprenticeship
citizenship
sponsorship

Time's Up!

Mr Whoops has got in a terrible muddle with his relative clause sentences.
Can you help him put the correct -ship suffix noun into each one?

Henry, who had worked as a carpenter
for 40 years, always received positive comments about the fine
craftsmanship of his furniture.

Mr Whoops has got in a terrible muddle with his relative clause sentences.
Can you help him put the correct -ship suffix noun into each one?

Mr Barnes had organised a citizenship lesson for class 12, which he hoped would stop some of his pupils
from continually falling out.

Mr Whoops has got in a terrible muddle with his relative clause sentences.
Can you help him put the correct -ship suffix noun into each one?

Chadcaster United, who were on the verge of bankruptcy, were relieved to have secured a new sponsorship deal with a local business.

Mr Whoops has got in a terrible muddle with his relative clause sentences.
Can you help him put the correct -ship suffix noun into each one?

Karen, who had always dreamt of being a bricklayer, was accepted on an apprenticeship at a local building firm.

Mr Whoops has got in a terrible muddle with his relative clause sentences.
Can you help him put the correct -ship suffix noun into each one?

The mischievous twins worked in partnership to tidy their bedroom,
which made their mum almost faint
in disbelief.

Challenge: Can you use one of your remaining -ship suffix spellings to create your own relative clause sentence?

dictatorship

ownership

membership

championship

fellowship

How did you do?

