

Wednesday 13th January 2021

Learning Objective

To identify and define three types of nouns (common, abstract and proper nouns).

Success Criteria	Self-Assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none">To match a correct definition for each type of noun.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">To give examples of each type of noun.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">To fill in the missing nouns in given sentences.

Can you match each of these definitions with the correct noun?

Common Nouns

A noun that cannot be seen, heard, smelt felt or tasted.

Proper Nouns

The general, everyday term for an object.

Abstract Nouns

The formal name of a specific object, such as a company or country.

Wednesday 13th January 2021

Now that you know the definitions, let's add in some examples:

Common Nouns	Proper Nouns	Abstract Nouns
e.g. table	e.g. Jupiter	e.g. bravery

Can you fill in the missing gaps in each of these sentences with the correct type of noun?

Common Nouns

1. Lily and Oscar threw the _____ backwards and forwards.
2. Preston was tired, he could not wait to get home and collapse on his _____.
3. Mrs Lee packed all of her _____ into her _____ so that she could set off on holiday.

Proper Nouns

1. I can't wait to start at my new school, it is called _____.
2. Harry shouted across the field to his friend _____, but he could not hear him.
3. Tia was about to set off on a plane to a far away country called _____.

Wednesday 13th January 2021

Abstract Nouns

1. A girl picks up a new puppy, her heart is filled with _____.
2. I was about to go into battle, so I needed to have lots of _____.
3. I have built up lots of _____ by constantly practising my performance.