

Learning Objective:

I can use punctuation including question marks.

Success Criteria

Self-
Assessment

- To write questions which make sense.
- To use question marks correctly.
- To include question words at the start of my questions.

Imagine you were in the middle of London during the Great Fire of London what questions would you ask about the fire?

Write ten questions in your book. Remember you need a question word at the start of every sentence.