

This is the actual postcard that Olive sent to her mam in the story. We know that the contents of it aren't true and why she didn't tell her the truth.

Tomorrow, you are going to be given two postcard templates. Your task will be to write two postcards to mam - one from Olive and one from Cliff. However, unlike in the story you're going to tell her the truth firstly from Olive's perspective and then secondly from Cliff's perspective. Please use the planning sheet to plan your postcards today.
