

Can you work out the order of the events in the divination ceremony and create a comic strip to show this?

The diviner's name and date of the ceremony was inscribed on the bone.
A hot metal rod was inserted into the drilled holes, causing the bone to develop cracks.
The answer was inscribed onto the bone.
Small holes were drilled into the bone.
The cracks were interpreted to provide an answer to the question.
The bone was anointed with blood.
The bone was buried in a specially dug pit with other oracle bones.
The question to be answered was written onto the bone.
A suitable oracle bone was obtained and prepared for use.
