

INTRODUCTION

- Your introduction is very important if you want to catch the reader's attention. You might want to use a question as an opener like the example you looked at, however you must introduce your famous person using the 5 W's.
- Who is the person? - their name (real name also if their birth name is different)
- What are they are famous for?
- When did it happen?
- Where did it happen?
- Why are they famous today?

PLANNING

- Using your planning sheet, answer the 5 W's.

MAIN BODY OF BIOGRAPHY

- Choose the most important events in their life to write about. You can talk about their childhood if you wish.
- Write down your chosen key events on your planning sheet. Remember to write them in the order they happened!

TIME OPENERS

- Brainstorm the openers you could use to show the passing of time between each of your main events.
- First, Next, Then, After, A while later, Finally
- Although, Despite, Even though...

CONCLUSION

- To conclude your biography, you should write about the impact they have on people today.

1. Have they taught us anything?

2. Why will they always be remembered?

3. Quote something someone said about them.

- Briefly answer the above questions on your planning sheet.

- Use the example biography to help you 😊
